Understanding Dealmaking in the Film and Television Industry

Dealmaking in the film and television industry involves a series of negotiations and agreements among multiple stakeholders, including producers, studios, streaming platforms, writers, directors, talent agencies, and financiers. These negotiations determine the financial, creative, and distribution rights associated with a project.

The Importance of Dealmaking

- Territorial rights (domestic, international)
- Platform rights (theatrical, TV, streaming)
- Exclusivity periods

The Process of Dealmaking in Practice

Dealmaking typically follows a structured process, often involving multiple stages:

- Development Stage: Pitching projects to studios, networks, or streaming platforms.
